SRI T. R. SHAMANNA.—The Hon'ble Minister has accepted that this is a very tremendous task to find employment. Will the Government constitute a High Power Cabinet Committee and see that how best the State can provide more employment by getting Central aid and other State resources? Whether the Government is going to take action to sponsor more and more self-employment schemes to solve the unemployment problem to some extent?

SRI S. M. YAHYA.—The problem is very well known to all and the cause of the problem also is known. The main cause is the population growth and it can be solved by family planning and other methods. The second is our education system is such that it is very unplanned. That is another cause. The third is the growth of industry, the growth of industry is in relation to the availability of raw materials and also power and so on. Now we are doing our best.
